Dear Mr Burleigh: [Replied
18 Jan 70]

I am writing regarding any information you might have on my great grandfather Harlow Hamilton. He was Dutch.

He was married to Elizabeth Fetz (Fettes) in 1856. (July 14th)

They had at least two children: one was my grandmother - Esther Margarette Hamilton - born - Feb. 14, 1867

+ her sister - Jessie Aurelia, she had to be older. She probably was born about 1857. She was called Lillian. I have just received some notes + clippings from my Uncle Arnold in Harrison, Mich. + he has down the name of Colonel Rode which I presume my great grandmother married after the death of Harlow. on one of the notes was the name of Rose Lawn Manor at Napoleon under

Do you know where I The Methodist Church records are?, for Bath or Napanee.

Harlow Hamilton's name & also that he was in the Carriage business.
There was also the name of Mrs
Carl - schoolteacher.

My mother also said a Miss Margaret Rose was a cousin & I just received a letter from my uncle giving me her address at Kingston, Ont. & I have written to her.

The father of Elizabeth Fitz, was Ebenezer (Ebenezer?) & his son's name was Tobias (Tobias).

I got some information from the Lennox & Addington Historical Society at Napanea that Harlow was a Carriage maker & from them & the Public Archives that Harlow was very sick on Sept. ^{21st} 1868 & that he later died between then & 1869.

I have wondered who Harlow's father was, my mother said we were relatives of Alexander Hamilton, born in 1757, & the first Secretary of the Treasury of the United States. My Grandmother was born in Bath, Ont. Canada (1867) & I seen the Clipping ^{the main} of ~~the~~ street in Bath, Canada

(X) & a mark, looking west beyond the main buildings where her home was.

From the Lennox & Addington Historical Society at Napanee, I found that a Gerard
Hamilton was in the Carriage business (Carriage maker) & lived on Mill Street.
This was in the 1869 Directory at Napanee.
Also, a widow, Elizabeth Hamilton lived on Water Street.

They also told me there was an Ebenezer Fettes (Fetz) who built a Lutheran Church at Big Creek about five miles from Bath.
I do not know if it was just named the Ebenezer Church or if he ^{built} it.
I do not know if this would be Elizabeth Hamilton's father.

My grandmother lived on a large farm in Bath, Canada. I have been unable to find any records through assessment offices & other sources in Canada. I have written to every source available & this is all the information I can obtain so far. If you have any record of Harlow's father's name
I would appreciate knowing what it was.

I will close, hoping I hear from you,
I also found from the notes I received,
that Harlow was buried in Fredericksburg.
(last year)

I also ordered Census micro film from the Public Archives at Ottawa & wrote 1871 Census

from the names of Gerald Hamilton & (Carriage maker) (Blacksmith) 1871

Napance & also Homer Hamilton & & wife 24

Napance. Gerald was Methodist & Homer was Presbyterian. Gerald's wife's name was Margaret born 40 - a son - Frank 13 - daughter - 11

Margaret Rose also has a summer home I am told ~~from~~ by my Uncle, in Bath, across the street from you.

Elizabeth Hamilton - Harlow's wife was born about 1820. In a statement written by a Mr Chamberlain when Harlow was very sick in 1869, it said his son was supporting them. By that I presume he was married before & that Gerald & maybe Homer also were his sons by a former marriage.
He would have had to been born about 1810 - Thanking you again, I remain

(Elizabeth Fetz Hamilton) was born in Ont, Canada
the family came from England. ^{was} listed as a Carriage maker in Napance in 1857-1858

Peter Bristol (son John W. Bristol + Catherine Fetz) in his "Rem-iniscences in Remington's Hist of L. + A." that he was born in 1820 and when he was in his third year his grandmother died & was buried in the Lutheran Cemetery.

This must be Mary Barbara, wife of Jacob Fetz. These people were Lutherans, while his father's parents were Methodists. Moreover the Cyclopedia Genealogy states that his grandmother Bristol, who was Elsey Cyclopedia, died in 1854. J.C. Clark's Diary says she died June 15, 1858

According to his obituary, Peter Bristol died May 15, 1915, aged 94 yrs & months & 19 days, which would have him born Dec. 26, 1820.
So his grandmother Fetz died between Dec 26 1822 & Dec 26, 1823, likely in 1823. According to Lutheran Church Records, she was a member of Ebenezer Church in 1816.

Aylsworth Genealogy.

62. Elsey (4) Aylsworth (Job 3, Philip 2, Arthur 1) was born in Rhode Island Nov. 10, 1772; married in Rensselaer Co., New York, Dec. 8, 1787, John Bristol, who was born Oct. 21, 1759, in Ulster Co., New York, and who was a son of Abraham Bristol, a Baptist preacher.

They lived a while, probably about ~~thirty years~~ five years, in Rensselaer Co., but followed her parents to Canada, and settled in Ernesttown, near Bath, where he died Oct. 28, 1849, and she in 1854. A notice of her death published at the time states that she lived until her descendants numbered 219, of whom 165 were then living, two of them belonging to the fifth generation; that she had her senses to the last, and that she had been a consistent member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church for over sixty years.

In a biographical notice of John Bristol, published at the time, we are told that he experienced religion in the twenty-seventh year of his age while under the ministry of Rev. Freeborn Garrettsen, and joined the M. E. Church in the United States, where he remained for seven years; that in the year 1793 he emigrated with his wife and family to Canada, where shortly after was made a class-leader, which office he filled for forty years. His last illness was brief, being taken at 5 o'clock in the afternoon and dying about 11 at night. Children:

1. Elsey (5), married in 1811, John Campbell, blacksmith; dwelt in Prince Edward County, Ont., and had three daughters. She died in 1814.
2. Esther (5), married in 1812, Lewis Fretz, farmer; they dwelt in Fredericksburgh, Ontario, and had 3 sons and 7 daughters; she died in 1859.
3. John Wesley (5), farmer, born Feb. 26, 1793, married in 1816, Catharine Fretz, born 1800, and died in 1860. They dwelt in Napanee, and had 3 sons and 10 daughters.
4. Coleman (5), farmer, born Feb. 8, 1796, married in 1822, Catharine Way; dwelt near Bath, and had 3 sons and 6 daughters.
5. Benjamin (5), farmer, born May 3, 1797, married July 8, 1819, Ruth, born Oct. 21, 1797, daughter of Corey and Matilda (Bull) Spencer, from Dutchess County, New York; dwelt in Picton, Ont., and had 1 son and 3 daughters.
6. Sarah (5), married Joseph Rose, farmer. She had no children.
7. Susanna (5), married Daniel Way; dwelt in Prince Edward County, Ont.
8. Elizabeth (5), married John Boothe, farmer, and had 1 son and 2 daughters.
9. Lavina (5), died at the age of 3 years.
10. Norris Haskell (5), married Mary Anderson; dwelt in Madoc, Ont., and had 6 sons and 3 daughters.
11. Joel Ensign (5), born in 1811, married Rachel Denyes; dwelt in Thurlow, Ont.

Lewis Fretz, of Fredericksburgh, & Esther Bristol, of Ernesttown, marr. 23 Jan. 1810. Langhorn Register.

Children, baptized in Lutheran Church, Fredericksburgh:

1. William Coleman, born or Baptized May 12, 1821.
2. Emily, born Dec. 16, 1816, baptized Jan. 6, 1817.
3. Esther Katharine, born Jan. 1, 1826, baptized Apr. 23, 1826.
4. Amanda, born May 1, 1830, baptized June 20, 1830.
5. Samantha, born Jan. 5, 1832.

Dr. H.C. Burleigh,
Bath, Ont.

Dear Sir;

At the insistance of C.E. Davern, I am submitting my family history, to determine my eligability to become a member of the U.E.L. Society.

On the mothers side of the family- and from memory only, I can refer to the Murdoff's, (Murdocks). However, on my fathers side, I have been fortunate, (with the prodding of the R.C.M.P. and the American F.B.I.) in securing my American history in elaborate detail.

Very recently, I have been able to trace my Canadian history in precise detail, having secured my information from the records and documents of the Luthern Church, as pertianing to St. Ebenezer Church, in Fredericksburg, on Big Creek.

This information was found in the records of the Ontario Historical Society, Vol VI, pages 137 to 167, as well as footnotes on page 250 of the Simcoe papers.

Here is recorded the first baptism, Maria Barbara, a daughter of Jacob Fretz, and who was born on Jan 1st. 1794.

This took place actually before the St. Ebenezer church was constructed, (about 1800).

In 1796, records show 51 people, as adherants of this congregation, awaiting construction of the church.

From this information, it would certainly appear that a sizable settlement was in being, before the Fretz baptism in 1794.

Additional records available make it relatively easy to follow the line from the 'original Jacob Fretz' right down to

Yours Truly
Raymond O. Fretts
Wapanee.

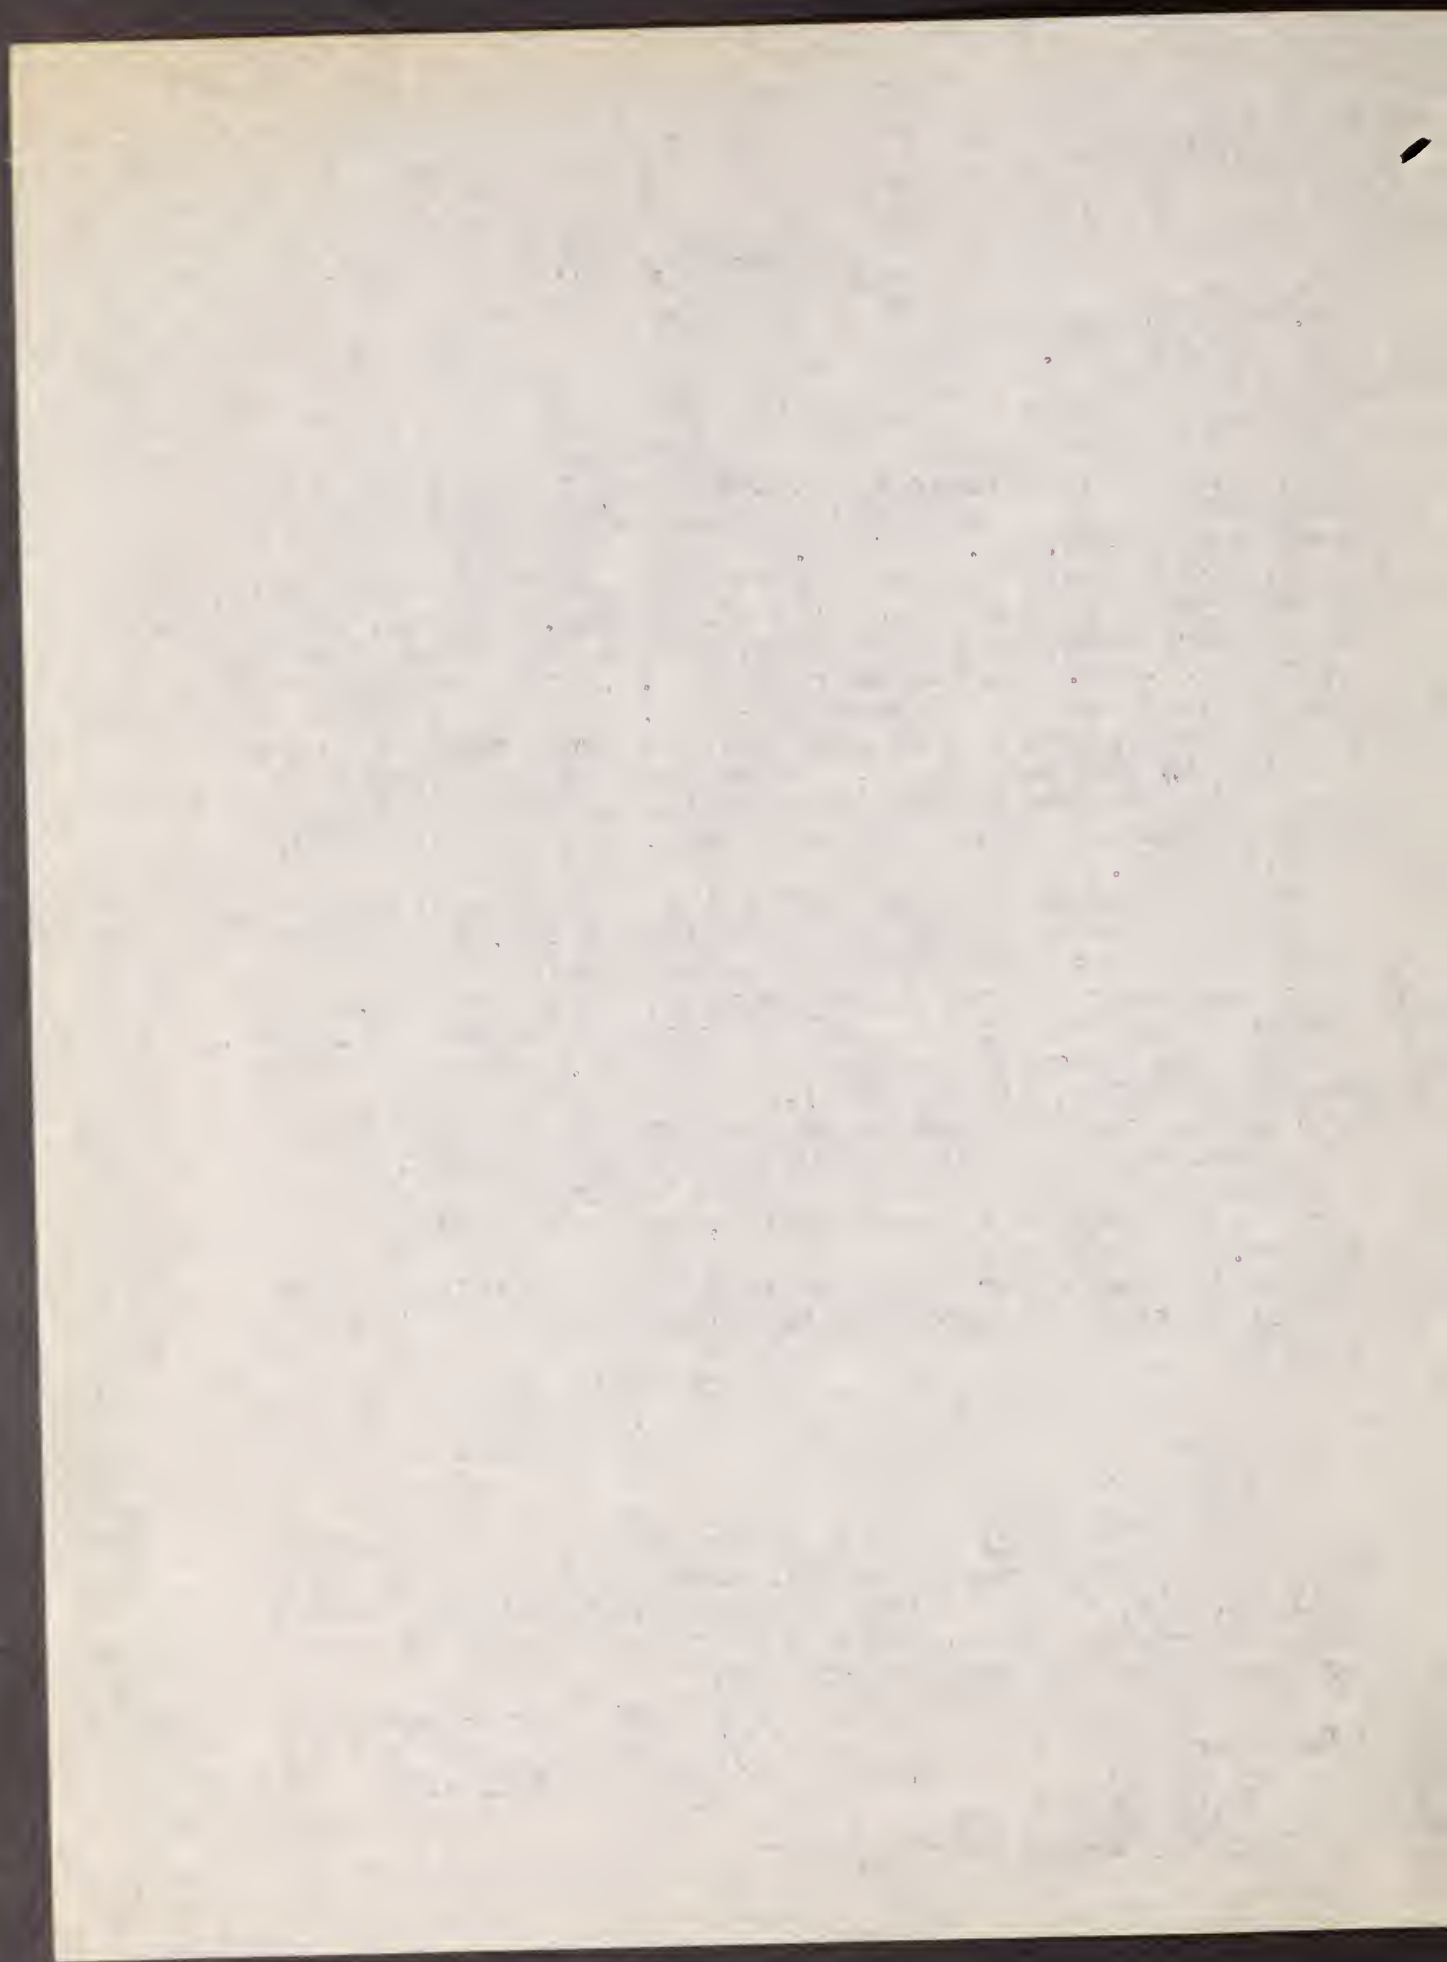

It is noted in Herringtons history, that among the prominent name in the construction of St. Ebenezer church, was Fretz, Fralick, etc. From all this detailed information, we have been here a long time, but the precise date of our coming to Canada has not been determined.

Dear Sir-

Just what are the qualifications for membership of this select group?

The writer has done a bit of research into my immediate ancestors and find this-

Raymond O. Fretts whose father was William Fretts- whose father was William R. Fretts, whose father was John Jacob Fretts Jr, whose father was John Jacob Fretts Sr. who came over from Pennsylvania in 1789.

I would like to go back from the date of 1789- but where and how?

Someone told me once that we ^{were} chased around Europe and finally out of Europe because of our being Huguenots- must have been a bad lot, or too radicle or could not pay their Doctor.

How would one attempt to trace the tree back to Pennsylvania and beyond?

If Mrs. Fretts and myself could qualify, and were proposed, we just might consider accepting an invitation to join.

Sincerely

Raymond O. Fretts

OBITUARY

MRS. W. G. FRETTS

The late Mrs. W. G. Fretts, who passed away recently, was the daughter of the late W. H. Cadman and Agnes Murdoch and was born in Adolphustown. Of the four daughters, only Mrs. T. M. Asselstine survives, Mrs. Capt. Bloomfield and Mrs. C. F. Allison having passed on previously.

W. G. Fretts and Maude Cadman were married on December 21 1896. Theirs was the first wedding in Hay Bay Church. The 50th wedding anniversary was celebrated in the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, and upon reaching their 60th anniversary, messages from Buckingham Palace, Canada's Prime Minister, as well as from the Province of Ontario, were among the scores of congratulations.

From her earliest life, Mrs. Fretts took a keen interest in community affairs, and early in the First World War, was one of the originals in forming the Maple Leaf Institute, of which she was a life member. So active was her work in the Red Cross, that the late W. S. Herrington presented her with a book on the results of her effort.

For many years she was on the Pension Board of Ontario, and president of the Liberal Women's Association.

She attended the laying of the cornerstone of the present Trinity United Church, was a member of the choir, and a faithful attendant since 1906. Mr. Fretts and Mrs. Fretts drove a horse and buggy the five miles from their farm to town, to church, for a time until the auto came along in 1909.

Besides her husband, she leaves one son, Raymond, and two grandsons, Fl.-Lt. Fretts, of Cold Lake, Alta., and Cpl. Bruce E. Fretts, of the R.C. A. F. Photographic Detachment, Ottawa. Three great-grandchildren also survive to mourn her loss.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. K. Pace, who read an old favorite hymn, "The Holy City." Mrs. Pace rendered a solo at that time.

As a life member of the Women's Missionary Society of Trinity Church, she was the recipient of many kind messages and thoughtful acts from that group.

Six nephews were the bearers, and internment took place in Riverside Cemetery, Nanaimo.

GRACE W. M. S.

The December meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of Grace United Church, was held in the Sunday School room with a good attendance.

The president, Mrs. E. Dier, presided and opened the meeting with a prayer and a poem.

The treasurer, Mrs. E. Foster, gave a satisfactory report.

The supply secretary, Mrs. C. Dale, gave her report and reported three cartons of clothing had been sent to the Unitarian work and also that Christmas gifts had been sent to Rev. and Mrs. Morley Hawley and family, who are missionaries in Korea.

The devotional was given by Mrs. E. Dier and Mrs. E. Foster. A reading was given by Miss H. VanAlstyne, "Let Christmas Happen to You." A pleasing vocal duet was given by Mrs. H. Ramsay and Mrs. D. L. Moore.

The report of the nominating committee was given by Mrs. Jessie Hagerman.

Mrs. Dier thanked all who had helped last year.
